

Text and Community

Spring '08

Sponsored by the English Department
& the Mason Project on Immigration

February

Immigration Film Festival: 9500 Liberty. Discussion with directors to follow. JC Cinema. Tuesday, February 5 at 7:30.

World Café Dialogue on Immigration - The Many Faces of Our Community. Sub II-Rooms 1 & 2. Thursday February 14 at 7:30. Contact: Monica Jakobsen, mjakobse@gmu.edu

March

Immigration Film Festival: Farmingville. Tuesday, March 4th at 7:30. JC Cinema.

World Café Dialogue on Immigration - How is Our Community Changing? Sub II-Room 7. Thursday March 6 at 7:30. Contact: Monica Jakobsen, mjakobse@gmu.edu

"Aquí Estoy" by Albany Park Theater (Chicago), TheaterSpace, Performing Arts Building Room A105. Tuesday March 18 at 7:30. Contact: Art Taylor etaylori@gmu.edu

April

Text and Community Devil's Highway. Luis Urrea. Center for the Arts. Wednesday, April 9 at 7:30.

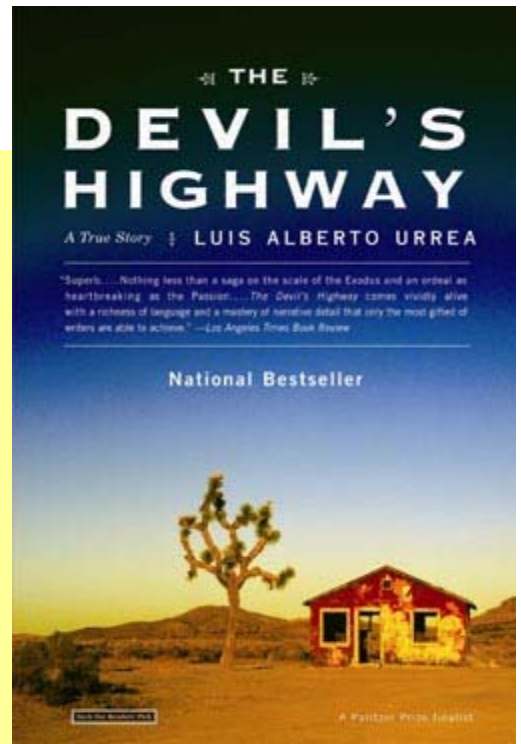

The Effects of U.S. Immigration Policy on People. A Democracy Project panel. Location TBA. Thursday, April 10 at 3:00. Contact: Claire Snyder, rcsnyder@gmu.edu.

World Café Dialogue on Immigration - Global Perspectives. Sub II-Room 7. Thursday April 17 at 7:30. Contact: Monica Jakobsen, mjakobse@gmu.edu

Immigration Film Festival: Undocumented-video art presentation and lecture with anthropologist Lori Lee and video artist Edgar Endress. JC Cinema. Tuesday, April 15 at 7:30.

May

World Café Dialogue on Immigration - What can we do in our communities?, Sub II-Room 7. Thursday May 1 at 7:30. Monica Jakobsen, mjakobse@gmu.edu

For more information please contact the specific event sponsor. You can always reach the Mason Project on Immigration at 703-993-8544 or email scurry1@gmu.edu. Please visit www.cssr.gmu.edu for event details.

Look for more information on student writing contests sponsored by English and the Democracy Project. We will accept creative writing submissions and essays on "Student Experiences with Immigration."